

Glotel Referral Program

Proudly Supporting

The Royal Children's Hospital (RCH)

Glotel is currently looking for experienced candidates across a broad range of skill sets.
If you refer a candidate to Glotel, and we place them in a position*....

Glotel will give YOU an iPod Shuffle 1GB

&

Glotel will donate $100 to The Royal Children's Hospital (RCH), Australian & New Zealand Heart Research Centre.
This centre is one of the world's leading paediatric facilities.

To Find Out How You Can Be Part Of An Amazing Program & Help An Inspiring Cause,

Call Julie Zdravkovska, in our Melbourne office.

Contact details below.

Melbourne Office
+61 3 8622 4400
melbourne@glotel.com

Sydney Office
+61 2 8905 0500
sydney@glotel.com

www.glotel.com

*Conditions Apply: {1}When you refer a candidate, the candidate will be placed on our database along with a note stating that you have referred them and the date they were referred. {2}The referral will be valid for 6 months. {3}If the candidate has been placed in a permanent position, the above will be given once the candidate has reached their probation period (3 months). {4}If the candidate has been placed in a contract position, the contract must be for a minimum of 3 months and the above will be given once the candidate has successfully completed the minimum tenure (3 months) {5}This program applies for Australian positions only. {6}This program will run for an initial 12 months beginning 1st May 2006 through till 30th April 2007. {7}All referrals will still be processed even if the candidate is placed after the program end date of 30th April 2007, if they fall within the 6 month validity date as mentioned in point {2}. {8}iPod Shuffle 1GB Specifications: 12-hour rechargeable battery, 22 grams, 0.8 cm thin Built-in USB connector, Lanyard and Apple earphones. USB cap, getting started guide, CD with iTunes for Mac and Windows and electronic documentation Holds 240 songs

